Tragedy strikes as child dies at centre

BY TOBY LOCK
tobylock@hpnorthants.co.uk

A SIX-year-old has collapsed and died at an activity centre in Northampton.

The girl died at Berzerk in Moulton Park at around 1pm on Sunday, December 27.

A post mortem concluded that she died of natural causes.

A spokesman for Northamptonshire Police said: "Further tests are required and the results may not be known for several weeks but police are now satisfied that the death is not suspicious."

Mick Lamb, a director at Berzerk, offered his condolences to the family, and praised the reactions of his staff.

He said: "We are very sorry for the family. It is always hard to lose a child at any time, but especially over Christmas.

"We have first aid staff here and they did all they could.

"They are all very upset, but we were told by paramedics there was nothing that they could have done.

"Unfortunately, this could have happened anywhere.

"My daughter, who is also a director, came straight in and we closed out of respect for the family.

"We expect children to come here and enjoy themselves.

"Over the last 15 years, we have had one million children here, and the last thing we want is for anything to happen to any of them.

"I am more than happy with our staff, but our thoughts are with the family."

Weather hampers search for missing Paul

THE bad weather prevented police from re-starting their search for missing Paul Lichfield in Brightwell Lake, Ringstead.

Mr Lichfield, from Langham Road, Raunds, went missing more than a week ago.

Last Tuesday, Police divers recovered the body of Philip Surridge, aged 42, of Primrose Close, Corby, who went missing on the evening of Monday, December 21 - the same time as the 30-year-old.

Police believe the men, who were out shooting in the area, went into the lake after a dog had run into the water. The dog and a Renault vehicle were recovered at the scene.

Police confirmed no searches took place over the holiday period because of freezing water temperatures and were checking conditions yesterday before resuming.

Man arrested after cannabis factory found

POLICE executed a Misuse of Drugs Act warrant and uncovered a cannabis factory in Rushden on Christmas Eve.

The factory was situated in a property on Queen Street.

Officers found around 100 plants growing and half a kilogram of what is suspected to be cocaine.

A 32-year-old man was arrested and released on police bail pending further investigation.

Police are encouraging members of the public to call in about any suspicious activity in their community.

Tell-tale signs of a cannabis factory include:

■ The windows of the property are permanently covered from the inside

■ People visit the property at unusual times of the day or night

■ People often do not live in the premises and only visit to maintain them

■ There may be a vent protruding through the roof or a rear window

■ There may be a pungent smell coming from the premises

■ There may be noise coming from the equipment, such as cooling fans

■ A large amount of pots and lights may be moved into the premises when the factory is set up

■ In terraced houses, shared walls may appear wet to the touch

■ Large amounts of soil and pots in back gardens

If anyone becomes suspicious of any activity they should contact police on 03000 111 222 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Academy plan still on council's agenda

BY TOBY LOCK

toby.lock@npnorthants.co.uk

WESTON Favell School could still become an academy despite sponsor United Learning Trust withdrawing their support last week.

A letter sent to Northamptonshire County Council by Vernon Coaker, minister of state for schools and learners, confirms the Government's commitment to establishing an academy at the school.

The council maintains that the plan will go ahead, despite widespread opposition from the community and politicians. Cllr Andrew Grant, cabinet member for children and young people, said: "Doing nothing is not an option and we remain committed to establishing an academy at Weston Favell."

"As recently as October, we challenged the Minister and received his written assurance that they were confident in ULT's ability to take on the sponsorship role at Weston Favell."

"We are therefore very disappointed that this change of opinion has come so late in the day."

"Let us be under no illusions as to the reality of this school's situation and the need to take action to turn this school round."

"Going forward, there are a number of options available and over the coming weeks we will be exploring these in great detail before we decide on which short and medium term solutions are going to be best for the school while we embark on the search for a new sponsor."

"We continue to have complete confidence in ULT's sponsorship of both Northampton Academy, which has seen good improvements this year, and Kettering Buccleuch Academy, which has just finished its first term."

Turn down the volume at new year celebrations

HAPPY New Year - but keep the noise down.

Northampton Borough Council has urged people to welcome the start of 2010 with consideration for their neighbours by not creating a lot of noise.

To help keep party noise down and reduce complaints at what should be a joyful time, the council has come up with some useful tips that should keep everyone happy:

- Don't play music at excessive levels
- Keep the bass down
- Keep windows and doors shut
- Don't fix loudspeakers to party walls
- Inform all your neighbours (not just immediate ones) at least 24 hours before you are having a party, tell them when it will finish and stick to this
- Ask your guests to keep their voices down when they leave your house
- Remember, you are responsible for the noise and behaviour of your guests

■ If you are having fireworks on New Year's Eve they must finish by 1am

Cllr Trini Crane, cabinet member for environment, said: "We hope that people in Northampton who are organising parties over the New Year have a fantastic time."

"However, we are urging everyone to be considerate to their neighbours who may be elderly, have young children in bed or are just looking forward to celebrating the New Year with a quiet night in."

Between December 15, 2008 and January 5, 2009, the council received 17 complaints about loud music and parties - the previous year 2007/08 saw 24 complaints.

If a complaint is made about you, an environmental protection officer will become involved, and further action could be taken if there is a problem with persistent noise. For more information visit www.northampton.gov.uk.

Charity's front door is smashed by brick

BY TOBY LOCK

tobylock@northants.co.uk

A CHARITY which promotes friendship among young people has been attacked with a brick.

The offices of a Derngate-based charity, The Friendship Zone, had its glass door smashed by half a brick.

The Friendship Zone in Northampton is the brainchild of director Paul Kuznecovs, and its purpose is to promote friendship and help people to achieve their dreams.

Mr Kuznecovs said: "On the one hand I feel very upset that someone should dare to attack a charity, but on the other hand I hope it will send a message to the Local Authorities and maybe even increase public awareness about our charity and what we do for the community."

"We promote friendship and try to keep young people off the streets."

"We have asked the borough council for shutters and maybe this will help us get them."

A police spokesperson said: "Any crime is distressing for the victim, but when a crime is carried out against a charity at a time of year when goodwill should be to the fore it leaves a particularly nasty taste in the mouth.

"We want to bring the offenders to justice and would appeal for anyone with information about what happened to contact us urgently on 03000 111 222."

"Alternatively, information can be left on an anonymous basis by ringing Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111."

The charity also works with Future Job Fund which helps reduce unemployment among youngsters.

It provides them with various trainings and in turn helps them run and manage the Friendship Zone.

Although the charity has only been involved with this initiative for a month it has trained ten youngsters in an effort to get them into work.

The Friendship Zone is currently continuing its objective to help people in and around Northamptonshire to achieve their dreams.

They are currently looking to expand Friendship Zone's number of users so that they are able to interact, converse and make more friends.

Aidan Howell

Tributes paid to 'Sunshine Boy' Aidan killed in Afghanistan

A RIFLEMAN who went to college in Rothwell has been killed in Afghanistan.

Aidan Howell, of 3rd Battalion, The Rifles, was killed on Monday, December 28 as a result of an explosion in Helmand Province.

He had been on patrol when an improvised explosive device detonated.

Howell, 19, attended Montsaye Community College in Rothwell before enlisting in the army in 2006.

A family statement said: "We cannot begin to express the total and utter devastation we feel at the loss of our beautiful son Aidan. He may be recognised as a hero now, but to his family and everyone who was lucky enough to know him, he was already a hero.

"Aidan was a big Leeds United fan and even met the players, his heroes, before he left for Afghanistan."

"He was known as 'Sunshine Boy' to his family and he was a loving son, grandson, and a cheeky and cocky brother."

"He loved his mates both at home and in the Army and he was so proud to be a soldier as we were utterly proud of him."

Support needed to help revive town's market

AN open invitation to speak up about Wellingborough market is being sent out to everyone.

Chairwoman of the council's development committee, Cllr Lora Lawman, would like anyone who is concerned about the market to air their views about it in the New Year.

Cllr Lawman would like those who want to speak out on its future to attend the council's development committee's meeting on Tuesday, January 5.

The report going before the committee will set out a far-reaching review of having a market in Wellingborough.

It states: 'The present market is a significant financial burden and use by residents is declining year by year.'

Cllr Lawman said: "What we need to do is to look at all the options and to find one common point."

"We need to bring everybody together including the market traders and street traders."

"On January 5, people can speak for three minutes and I am more than happy to listen to their concerns."

"The market has declined but that is not unique to Wellingborough."

"We would be very sad if the charter the market has held since 1201 was lost."

"Wellingborough Council is constrained by what it can do."

"We don't want to destroy our market."

Cllr Lawman said the council has looked at a number of options, such as getting a third party to run the market.

She added: "We have also looked at Sunday trading or perhaps the answer could be using a smaller area."

"We have asked our officers to get in touch with the Market Traders Federation to see if they have any suggestions or assistance they can give."

The development meeting will be held in the committee room at Swanspool House and starts at 7pm.

What has been making the

AS 2009 draws to an end, we take a look back at the stories which made the last year of the decade.

MAY: Super Saints celebrate winning the European Challenge Cup

JANUARY

■ Matt Smith, from Northampton, is chosen to play the new Dr Who. He replaces David Tennant and will make his debut as the Tenth Doctor today.

■ Proposals to build a new marina in Becket's Park were discussed at Northampton Borough Council's Cabinet.

FEBRUARY

■ Your favourite Herald & Post is re-launched under LSN Media. The paper is given a facelift and a new website is introduced.

■ Snow caused Northamptonshire to come to a halt.

■ Angry plumber Malcolm Austin was left annoyed as he felt police ignored his calls saying he'd caught the thieves who broke into his van.

■ Wellingborough Council took delivery of a new graffiti busting machine to help clean the town.

■ The Crazy Hats charity was given a mini bus by the Duchess of York. The Wellingboroughbased organisation appeared on the Alan Titchmarsh show.

MARCH

■ Funding is agreed between Northampton Borough and the county council to save Northampton's Fishmarket from closure.

■ A parade in the streets welcomed back the 9th/12th Royal Lancers as they returned from Iraq.

■ Wellingborough & Rushden MP Peter Bone was promised by the Government a review into the impact wearing cycle helmets would be produced by the end of the year. The review came about due to the pressure from the Herald & Post's Cycle Helmet Campaign which it launched in August 2006.

APRIL

■ An investigation was opened at the county council after a multi-million pound privatisation deal with Carillion collapsed.

■ Swine flu warnings were sent out as the pandemic spread across the world.

■ Rushden was celebrating after the county council agreed £11 million was to be pumped into the town. It would go to several projects including upgrading the town centre.

MAY

■ MPs came under the spotlight as the expenses scandal revealed how much had been claimed.

■ Northampton Saints won the European Challenge Cup by 15-3 over Bourgoin at The Stoop. Northampton Town were relegated to League Two the following day.

■ It was announced seized drug money would be put to good use in several projects across East Northamptonshire. The Police Authority allocated £20,000 to projects working with young people to offer an alternative to drug use. Projects in Rushden, Irthlingborough and Wellingborough would get a share of the money seized by police under the Proceeds of Crime Act.

JUNE

■ Billing Aquadrome stepped in to save the Balloon Festival after funding was withdrawn by Northampton Borough Council. The event would take place on the same day as the popular American Car Show and at very short notice.

■ Bernie Ecclestone gave hope to Silverstone as the first signs of Donington Park's failure to produce the money to host the British Grand Prix became evident.

■ Conservatives painted Northamptonshire blue as they dominated the county council elections.

■ Plans were announced to put together a public sector bid to run Wellingborough Prison. In March, the jail was condemned as one of the weakest inspected by HM Inspectorate of Prisons.

JULY

■ Seven children held a protest outside Caroline Chisholm School after they were left without a place at the school despite living and being educated in the area.

■ Seventeen schools in Northants were taken out of 'special measures' by OfSTED in just 18 months, it was revealed.

■ A ravaged sofa, which once belonged to Winston Churchill, was sold at JP Humberts Auctioneers in Towcester. The red leather settee went for £7,500 to a bidder in South Africa.

■ Wellingborough Civic Society called on people to ask their councillors why the bandstand in Castle Fields had been allowed to fall into such a bad state. The society wanted it returned to its former glory.

■ Residents in the Castle ward of Wellingborough were delighted the borough council gave its backing for a residents parking scheme in Chace Road, Chester Road, Colwell Road, Dryden Road, Elsdon Road, Midland Road, Senwick Road and Talbot Road. The scheme was called for after problems with commuters parking in these areas rather than using car parks at the train station.

AUGUST

■ Patients missing appointments cost Northampton General Hospital £2.7 million in just one year. Almost 24,000 outpatients did not give notice before missing their appointments.

■ South Northamptonshire Council spoke out against plans to redevelop Northamptonshire. The controversial Emergent Joint Core Strategy would come under severe criticism from many groups across the county.

■ The first designs for the new £13 million Manor Park Leisure news this year?

Centre in Rushden were unveiled.

■ The Herald & Post and The Mayor of Wellingborough, Cllr Peter Morrall, presented certificates to the first winners of the Wellingborough Young Citizens Awards.

SEPTEMBER

■ Brian Binley MP spoke out against plans from West Northamptonshire Development Corporation to turn Northampton from a large town into a small/medium-sized city.

■ Villagers from across the south of Northants marched in protest against the Joint Core Strategy. They were worried the plan looked set to destroy the rural environment where people lived.

■ Deputy leader of Wellingborough Council, Cllr Paul Bell, reiterated free parking must be maintained in the town at all costs - even a tax rise.

■ The Night Shelter in Rushden was dealt a body blow after East Northamptonshire Council pulled the plug on giving it a £5,000 from its Homeless Fund.

OCTOBER

■ Leader of Northampton Borough Council, Cllr Tony Woods resigned after he was forced to apologise in writing to his fellow councillors after it was revealed he had left his car untaxed in the Guildhall car park for three months.

■ Northampton Borough councillors backed a motion to merge with Northamptonshire County Council to become the largest unitary council in the country.

■ Parents were told they could face prison after home-schooling their children who could not get a place at Caroline Chisholm School.

■ Plans were announced to bring a hi-tech science park to Wellingborough. The borough council recommended £250,000 to get a master-plan drawn up.

NOVEMBER

■ The county council announced plans which could spell the end of the road for speed cameras in Northants.

■ Residents in East Hunsbury were told to keep the lights on at night as a flyover scene was recorded to appear in the next Harry Potter film.

■ Bridge Street in Northampton was closed to traffic overnight to make it safer for revellers using the many bars along the popular road.

■ Butcher Chris Potter from C R Potters in Stanwick cooked up a bit of magic. His Hogwarts sausage was crowned runner-up in a national competition asking butchers to invent a new sausage.

■ Soldier's mum Tracie McLeod from Raunds wanted a one-to-one meeting with Prime Minister Gordon Brown to get him to bring the troops home from Afghanistan and Iraq.

DECEMBER

■ Silverstone secured the future of the British Grand Prix by signing a 17-year deal to host the event. More than £1million of tickets were sold on the first day sale.

■ Council tax would remain the lowest in the country as the county council vowed to become more efficient to save £100 million in four years. Northampton Borough Council also revealed £4.4 million worth of savings in their budget proposal.

■ Rushden Night Shelter was given £5,000 by three councillors. Leader of East Northamptonshire Council, Cllr Andy Mercer, Northamptonshire County Cllr Michael Tye and East Northamptonshire Cllr Ron Pinnock secured the money for the shelter. Rushden Town Council also donated £2,500.

■ Wellingborough Council announced it would have to axe more than £3million from its budget by 2014 due to the reduced grants it expects from Central Government.

Dealer took son, 2, on trip to deliver drugs

A DRUG dealer who was about to hand over two packages of cocaine at a service station on the M25 had his two year old son in the car with him, a court has heard.

Police took interest in the car Daniel Lamb was driving because it had no tax disc, but felt he reacted in a furtive manner.

A search of the VW Golf at the South Mimms service station on November 27 this year revealed cocaine weighing 313 grammes and £1,700 cash in the glove box.

Prosecutor Laura Blackband said it was not possible to put a value on the Class A drug because the purity had not been analysed.

Lamb, 31, from Newport Pagnell Road, Northampton, pleaded guilty at Luton Crown Court to possessing drugs with intent to supply.

On Wednesday, December 23 he was jailed for six years. The court heard he had been released from his last prison sentence for an identical offence in June.

Steven Garrett, defending, said when Lamb was released he wanted to get away from Northampton, but he still had old debts to drug dealers to repay.

"They set a timetable for repayment which he could not meet and they made him an offer he could barely refuse, which was to deliver a package and wipe £1,000 off his debt.

"It was while carrying out that single transaction that he was arrested."

Judge John Bevan QC told Lamb: "You have a very bad criminal record and within six months of being released from prison you are spreading the menace of Class A drugs once more.

"To do it with your two year old son as a passenger is a pretty unattractive aspect of the case."

BHF's call for your unwanted presents

BRITISH Heart Foundation (BHF) Shops in Northamptonshire are appealing to people to donate unwanted Christmas gifts to help refill their shelves.

The appeal follows a 20 per cent shortfall of donated stock throughout the last 12 months despite BHF Shops being busier than ever.

During tough economic times, the public has been holding on to their unwanted items, which this year the charity fears will lead to a further shortfall.

You can donate any unwanted, good quality clothing, handbags, shoes, books, DVDs, CDs and bric-a-brac or give unwanted furniture or electrical items a new home by calling any of the BHF Furniture and Electrical Stores for a FREE collection. To book a free collection go online at bhf.org.uk/shops

Have a say on pub site

RESIDENTS in Goldings are being asked what they want to see on the site of a disused pub that was once the centre of complaints about crime and anti-social behaviour.

A letter is going out to more than 700 houses explaining that Northampton Borough Council has taken back control of the Silver Horse pub site, which it owns, and it will not re-open as a pub.

The pub will almost certainly be demolished, and the borough council is committed to ensuring that whatever comes to the site in the future is a benefit to local people.

In the new year, Goldings' residents will be asked what they would like to see on the site in place of the pub. Cllr Paul Varnsvery, portfolio holder for community engagement, said: "This pub was the source of repeated complaints from local people over the years and we are determined to ensure that whatever replaces it will be something that enhances the local community."

Posters and leaflets will be going up around Goldings in the New Year to tell people how they can have their say.

There will be a public meeting at Wood Vale School on the evening of Thursday, January 28, and Goldings residents will also be able to express their views through a telephone consultation line.

Road closed tonight

NO traffic will be allowed down Bridge Street tonight.

The road has been closed to traffic between 8pm and 4am on Friday and Saturday nights since the end of November.

Although today is a Thursday the street is expected to be busy so the closures is being made under a different power – Section 21 of the Town Police Clauses Act 1847.

A spokesman for the Safer Stronger Northampton Partnership said: "The anecdotal evidence from door staff at clubs and bars in Bridge Street has been that they have found it much easier to manage queues.

"We have been monitoring the impact and are keen to hear people's views on the closure and are encouraging anyone who wants to comment to come along to the public meeting in January."

The meeting will take place at the Guildhall at 6.30pm on January 27.

Councillor scores cash goal for football club

FOOTBALLERS in Thorplands will kick off the New Year in brand-new kit after financial help from their local councillor.

Cllr Dennis Meredith gave £512 of his £10,000 Councillors' Empowerment Fund to support Black Hawks U12s side as they look to build on their impressive start to the season.

The move follows a similar contribution by Cllr Meredith to Thorplands United earlier this year.

Speaking after the Black Hawks' win at Southfields football field, Cllr Meredith said: "Encouraging youngsters into sport is something close to my heart. "I'm very pleased to be able to help to give the team a bit of extra pride and purpose as they go onto the field."

CELEBRATING: The youngsters in their new kit with Cllr Meredith

Turn your trees green

BY TOBY LOCK

toby.lock@hpnorthants.co.uk

GETTING rid of your Christmas tree has never been easier - or more environmentally friendly.

Anyone with a real tree can take it to one of Northampton Borough Council's shredding events for composting.

The first is on Wednesday, January 6 at B&Q on Towcester Road between 10am and 3pm.

The second is on Saturday, January 9 at Billing Garden Store, The Causeway also between 10am and 3pm.

For people who can't make those two days, they can recycle their Christmas tree by putting it in the skip that will be available at Billing Garden Store from January 4-11 or take it to the Household Waste Recycling Centres.

Your tree can also be cut up and placed in your brown bin ready for the next collections, which will be in the week commencing January 25.

If you don't have a brown bin because you live in a black sack collection area you can bag up your cuttings and arrange for its collection by calling the Customer Contact Centre.

Up to ten bags of garden waste at a time can be collected in this way for composting. This service is free of charge and available at any time of the year.

If you require any further information, call the Customer Contact Centre on 01604 838281 or e-mail recycling@northampton.gov.uk.

Circus is set to wow the crowds at next year's carnival event

BY LAWRENCE JOHN
lawrence.john@hpnorthants.co.uk

STRONG plans are in place for the 102nd Wellingborough Carnival next year and the 2010 Party in the Park.

The celebratory weekend is scheduled to be held in the town on July 3 and 4, with the carnival taking place on the Saturday and the music event on the Sunday.

Croyland Park will be the venue for the funfair, children's amusements, children's activities, trade and charity stalls, catering concessions, arena events, a family dog show, wrestling, folk music, a talent competition, arena entertainment, cultural dance and music on Saturday and live music on stage on Sunday.

The possibility of attracting a circus without animals, healthy living and food tasting marquees to the event are being investigated.

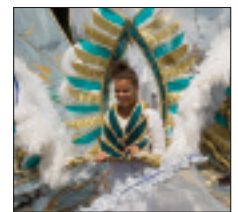

To avoid damage to the Croyland park football pitches, the Party in the Park event will continue to use both the Kingsway side and Henshaw Road side, linked by a temporary bridge.

In a report going to the council's community committee on Monday, January 4 it states: 'The provision of the event will be dependant on the following:

'Both events remaining and on the same weekend to support the infrastructure costs, which are the major component in the budget, and keeping a team of volunteers aboard.

'The budget remains at the same level.' Last year's event costs were:

- expenditure for the Party Weekend 2009 - £38,000
- income in 2009 (including grants) - £19,000
- provided form the events and carnival budgets - £19,000.

LOTS OF FUN: Wellingborough Council hopes scenes like the ones at this year's event, pictured, will return in 2010

Edinburgh expects interest in wing star Tomlin when window opens

FOOTBALL

RUSHDEN & Diamonds boss Justin Edinburgh is bracing himself for a flurry of interest in Lee Tomlin when the transfer window re-opens next month.

Tomlin has been linked with a move away from Nene Park in the New Year, with Peterborough United said to be among the potential suitors for the promising winger.

The 20-year-old was instrumental in Rushden's 2-1 win over Kidderminster Harriers on Boxing Day, scoring both goals including a spectacular left-footed volley into the top corner.

"It was something special and that's what he got," said Edinburgh, adding: "I think after that he was trying to do too much and in the end he was trying things that I think he might have seen on television, but the boy is a talent."

"That's 11 goals now he's got this season from midfield and I don't think you can question that. We know what's coming around the corner when January 1 comes and that's inevitable I expect, but the boy deserves all the credit and whatever the future holds for him."

"We've not had anything recently. We had one or two enquiries prior to the loan window closing, but I think if anyone is here today they know what he is all about."

Tomlin also exhibited the petulant side of his game later on in the match, picking up a yellow card, his seventh of the season, for kicking the ball away.

But that failed to detract from his overall performance and it is arguably a case of when, not if, he departs for pastures new during the transfer window.

Edinburgh was quick to praise the rest of his side as the Diamonds ended a two game losing streak in the Blue Square Premier, although he was annoyed they let Harriers back in during the second half.

He said: "I thought that we needed to start fast, get into our stride early, and I thought we did that. I thought we were very, very accomplished up to 2-0 and then I'm disappointed with the spell after that where we turned away from what we were having success with."

"We've had a good win here and hopefully we'll take that into New Year's Day."

Rushden are at home again tomorrow when they host league leaders Oxford United in front of what is expected to be a bumper crowd.

They were due to face the U's on Boxing Day but that match fell victim to the weather, having been postponed just under two hours before kick off. Michael Corcoran should be available after illness saw him miss the win over Kidderminster, while Max Porter is also expected to be fit after being substituted in the same game due to a twisted ankle.

ATHLETICS

ANDY Pacey rounded off a fantastic season by being crowned the inaugural winner of the Dr Frank Newton Cup at the Silson Juggers AC Christmas meal.

The cup, named after a founding member of the club, is awarded to the winner of the Silson Road Running Challenge with the athletes earning points based on their performances over the summer road racing season.

The other category winners in the Challenge were Heather Cooke (senior female), Mel Bignall (F45), Chris Wood (senior male), Michael Spencer (M45), Andy Hoare (M50), Len Pannell (M60) and Allan Lock (M65).

Three of the club were involved in the recent Hook Norton Harriers Christmas Canter, run off road over seven miles in Hook Norton, Oxfordshire.

Jim Darcy led the way home for Silson, coming in seventh out of a field of 150 and fourth in the Male Vet 40 category. Club chairman Dave Coates was third in the Male Vet 50 category with his 49min 23sec run, winning a mini Christmas pudding for his efforts. The final Silson finisher was Allan Lock. He was sixth in the Male Vet 60 and 97th overall in 64mins 12sec.

DARTS

KEVIN McDine's run in the PDC Ladbrokes.com World Championship came to an end after he was blanked 4-0 by Adrian Lewis in the third round on Tuesday evening.

The Irthlingborough-based player, who had beaten Barrie Bates by the same score-line to reach the last 16, had no answer for Lewis, whose three dart average of 103.62 dwarfed McDine's of just over 92.

'SupaMc' took the opening leg of the night but Lewis rattled off the next three and took the first set with a 164 checkout.

The second set was closer but it was the 24-year-old from Stoke who prevailed 3-2. McDine was level pegging with Lewis after the first two legs of the third set, but his opponent found another gear and took a 3-0 lead courtesy of a 13 dart finish.

'Jackpot' then completed the shutout by completing another 3-1 victory in the fourth, although McDine's winning leg saw him hit a 105 checkout - his highest of the night.

Lewis now faces mentor and defending World Champion Phil 'The Power' Taylor in the quarter finals, while McDine picks up £15,000 prize money for his efforts.

Sampson pleased with how year has ended for Cobblers

FOOTBALL

IAN Sampson admitted he was frustrated that his Northampton Town side were unable to follow up their Boxing Day victory with a win at Barnet on Monday.

The Cobblers extended their unbeaten run to four games courtesy of a 1-0 victory over Dagenham & Redbridge on Saturday and the Bank Holiday stalemate at Underhill.

And while happy with his team's recent form, Sampson was left to rue the fact that Northampton failed to take advantage of Barnet having Dean Sinclair sent off for a second yellow card early in the second half.

"It's better than losing four on the trot, but we're disappointed not to win the game," he said after the game.

"When they went down to ten-men we were camped in their half, we had a few chances but we didn't get the break and couldn't put the goal in the back of their net. That's disappointing, but it's four unbeaten now."

Northampton begin the New Year away to second-placed Bournemouth on Saturday and will be looking to make it a hat-trick of wins over the Cherries this season.

Back in August, Eddie Howe's side were beaten 2-0 at Sixfields in the league and then went out of the Johnstone's Paint Trophy 2-1 in October thanks to a last minute

Ryan Gilligan penalty at the same venue.

But despite their season head-to-head record being in favour of Northampton, it is Bournemouth that have been riding high and they end 2009 very much in the shake-up for promotion.

The Cobblers will have Andy Holt available again after completing a one match ban for a red card in the win over Dagenham. However, Paul Rodgers is not available as he picked up his fifth booking of the season against Barnet.

Liam Davis and Steve Guinan remained sidelined with a groin injury and a hernia respectively, but there are no other injury concerns at present.

Sampson is urging his side to carry on their recent form when they head to Dean Court, where Northampton have only won once since 1968.

They end 2009 18th in League Two and are nine points away from a possible play-off place, but the manager is only focusing on getting a win this weekend.

"I'm delighted with the way it's going, particularly the last four," he said, adding: "It's never nice when you're losing games or not winning and we're happy with the way we've ended the year."

"We'll try to remain positive, and let's see if we can win Saturday's game."

"Then we can discuss the play-offs."

UCL ROUND-UP

BOXING DAY

PREMIER DIVISION

ALFIE Taylor scored against his former club to give Cogenhoe United a 1-0 victory in their derby against Northampton Spencer at Compton Park.

The game was one of only two that beat the weather on Boxing Day in the entire league, with 126 fans braving the snowy conditions.

Taylor's 15th minute strike, his 14th of the season so far, proved enough to give the Cooks victory and move them up to seventh in the table.

All of Saturday's Division One fixtures were postponed.

MONDAY

PREMIER DIVISION

RAUNDS Town pulled off the upset of the day as a last minute winner from Cavell Jarvis gave the Shopmates a 3-2 victory at Newport Pagnell Town.

Darren Lynch put Newport Pagnell in front on 23 minutes but goals from Dave Townsend and Karl Bates saw Raunds in front at half time.

Lynch drew the Swans level with a 50th minute penalty, only for Jarvis to pounce and ensure that the visitors moved to within a point of climbing out of the relegation zone.

Tom Liversedge's second half equaliser earned Wellingborough Town a share of the points as they drew 1-1 at home to Cogenhoe United.

Rob Foster had put the visitors in front on his first appearance of the season, but Liversedge scored on 68 minutes to ensure it finished honours even.

Northampton Spencer's game away to Long Buckby was postponed.

DIVISION ONE

RUSHDEN & Higham United went down 5-1 away to defending champions Peterborough Northern Star, who moved nine points clear at the top of the table.

The hosts were 3-0 up at half time thanks to goals from Mark Baines, Ian Edge and Ali Nyang. Edge added a second after the break with Karl Bates completing the scoring.

Sam Fowler's 85th minute strike gave the Lankies a consolation as they end the year fourth from bottom in the standings.

ON Chenecks' game away to Buckingham Town and Sileby Rangers against Irchester United both fell victim to the weather.

Cobblers want Brown as coach

SIMON Brown has been offered a coaching position with Northampton Town following the signing of Billy Lumley last week.

Journeyman goalkeeper Brown moved to Sixfields to provide competition for Chris Dunn back in September, playing in the defeats to Notts County and Rochdale.

He has also been helping out in coaching the young Cobblers stopper since the departure of Jim Barron, and has now been offered a full-time position on the staff.

Speaking after the 0-0 draw at Barnet on Monday, Northampton boss Ian Sampson revealed that the signing of Lumley was due to the 33-year-old being given the chance to move into coaching.

"I have offered Simon Brown a coaching position at the club, which is why Billy Lumley has come in," said Sampson, adding: "We are waiting to see if Simon will accept the offer."

Lumley, 19, joined the club on non-contract terms as he is currently with the Glenn Hoddle Academy in Spain and was on the bench for the Christmas games against Dagenham & Redbridge and Barnet.

Sampson said: "He has been interesting a number of clubs and there have been quite a few keen on him. I have known about him for a while and we were interested in him when he originally joined Wolves but they won the race to sign him then."

"He is coming in to increase the pressure on Chris Dunn. Competition for places is healthy and hopefully brings the best out of players."

Mallinder's delight at third away win

BY MARC BAZELEY

marc.bazeley@nphants.co.uk

JIM Mallinder was relieved to see Northampton Saints record their third away win of the season at Worcester Warriors on Boxing Day thanks to a three try blitz in the second half.

With the Saints holding a slender 9-6 lead after a cagey first 40 minutes, tries from Chris Ashton, Ben Foden and Phil Dowson ensured the scoreline finished 26-6 in favour of the visitors.

He told the club's website: "In the first half we went to sleep a little bit. We went nine points up, they had a player in the bin and we really should have taken control of the game and gone out of sight."

"But we turned around in the second half, put pressure on their lineout and scrum and when we got opportunities we took them."

"Credit to Worcester, they came out to play rugby, but we got good numbers in defence and our technique was good. We forced quite a few turnovers and that's imperative when you play this style of rugby."

"I was actually delighted that even when time was up we looked after the ball and very nearly scored."

"It would have been lovely to come away with five points but we're very grateful for four."

Director of rugby Mallinder was left frustrated after a first half which saw his side fail to take advantage of Craig Gillies being sin-binned

The win temporarily moved

IN ACTION: Last season's encounter between Northampton Saints and London Irish at Franklin's Gardens proved to be a close fought contest

Northampton up to second in the Guinness Premiership before being leapfrogged by Saturday's opponents, London Irish.

The clash at Franklin's Gardens sees two of the league's form teams go head-to-head, with visitors Irish coming off the back of a 23-19 win over previously unbeaten league leaders Saracens on Sunday.

They are also unbeaten away from home in the Premiership since April, with the Exiles' last defeat on the road coming against Northampton.

That game saw Irish come close to clawing back a 13 point deficit at half time before eventually succumbing 21-17 as Saints managed to hold on.

The match could also be Shane Geraghty's first appearance against his former club since his high-profile move to the Gardens in the summer.

But despite an impressive start to his Northampton career that saw the 23-year-old return to the England squad, he has been mostly limited to warming the bench in recent weeks.

That has been due to fly-half Stephen Myler seizing the number ten shirt back from Geraghty after a spell on the sidelines, while his chances at inside centre have been restricted by the form of James Downey.

Irish are the most prolific points scorers in the league, having racked up 242 and conceding a Premiership low of 130. Fly-half Ryan Lamb leads the points scoring charts with 116, while Sailosi Tagicakibau has six tries - just two behind highest try scorer Ashton.

Saints were boosted at the weekend by the return of last season's top try scorer Paul Diggin. Fellow winger Bruce Reihana could also return on Saturday if he has recovered from his recent injury in time.
